

No More Ads

By: Arielle Emery

Why do we even need commercial ads? We don't, is the answer. They're SO annoying and they interrupt your shows, don't you think? Ok sure, who doesn't like a funny commercial, but most are just plain annoying.

Has this ever happened to you? So you're watching TV and your show is almost over. Then what happens? Oh yeah! A commercial comes on TV. And it's that commercial that is like 2 minutes long. Then your parent turns off the TV and say you have to go somewhere. If not, you're lucky. Did you know that a half hour show would be about 22 minutes without commercials? (19 minutes at the least). I'd MUCH rather have 22-minute shows than a 30-minute show. And you know what we really need? We really need it to go on forever. Thanks so much for going on and on and on and on and on about your product that people only buy in stores. It's really helpful especially when we just want to watch our shows, so thanks again!☺

What else is so annoying about commercials? Oh wait! How about the fact that no one ever buys the product from the commercial? I don't know about you, but I've never called in to buy a product on a commercial, that's for sure. It's just a waste of time. When they say, "call now" you know what I never do? CALL NOW! Who does anyway? Its just annoying when they say "call blah blah blah- blah blah blah- blah blah blah" and repeat it OVER

AND OVER AGAIN. WE ARE NOT CALLING!!!!!!

Spending so much money on a commercial is just wasting money on a commercial and sales will just be the same and if not, lower. This is because people spend money on commercials and they don't even get any of that money back. They could have used that money to upgrade or buy more of the product! And anyway, if you haven't noticed, there are other ways to sponsor TV shows. I'll just explain it all to you in 1 word: BAN ADS (except funny ones). Ok, that's 5 words. Whatever. Back to what I was saying. I know there are lots of other ways to sponsor your favorite shows. I can't think of any, but I know there are some other ways, trust me.

If I never have to see a non-funny never ending commercial again, my world will be a tiny bit better. Actually, my world will be a lot better.
