First you think OMG this is just what I need. Proactive Solution it will make me look beautiful. No pimples, perfect skin and will make me look gorgeous. The ad says call right now folks and you can get not only 1 set but 2 sets for the price of one. CALL NOW!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

A week later you get your product and try it out. You get so excited and you feel and look like a million dollars. A week later after using the product you feel like you have been tricked! What a rip off- $100 dollars down the drain! How dare they! This is humiliating, why did I fall for it? I just need to calm down and think.

Now this what I am thinking about those people. They say you learn from your mistakes. Well I AM LEARNING SOMETHING NOW! NEVER BE TRICKED AGAIN! Those pro whatever people are guilty, DUN, DUN, DUN!!!!!!!!!! It is wrong to do that. All people want is money and that's why they are doing this. There are people are doing out there doing things to help their family. Not these people. Hello GET A NEW JOB!!!! Now the next time the ad sounds too good to be true just turn off the TV because all they want is the cha ching.
