it may look familiar to you.

Do you think ninjas are about killing and chopping things up? If so you are wrong. It is awesome, but it's a small part of ninjas. Ninjas are mostly about planning and strategy and so on and so forth. You never know what ninjas may use. He could take a throwing star and kill you and that would be ugly. I don't think you know about Dubbya. Well he was a ninja who poisoned Osama with monkey poison. There were also 3 ninja who faked death and they are Columbus, Napoleon, and Sun Tzu.

Dubbya & Osama

As you know, Dubbya killed Osama with monkey poison. Here's how he did it: he sneaked through over 5,000 terrorists and then he injected the poison into Osama. Osama suffered extreme pressure. The poison made him suffer extreme pain. Things like this are almost impossible because Osama was well, very powerful. I wish I could tell you more, but of course, ninja can hide things they did and their true identities. That is a reason why ninjas are so cool.

Fakers

Okay, so there are 3 ninja I know of that faked death. They are Napoleon, Columbus (not the one that sailed to America), and Sun Tzu. As I said before, ninjas can hide their true identity and things they did. If you want to hear the whole thing, look for the ancient scrolls. I would not do that if I were you, the scrolls can contain poisonous drugs and ways to make weapons of destruction. Anyway, the ninja faked death and they used the advantage of their enemies thinking they were dead and had a massive showdown with them. A sword they could have used this:

it's a katana, a 22-inch blade. It is one of the ninjas main sword.

They also used this deadly little toy:

this sword has a black sheath (a sheath is like a sword holder) for stealthy missions.

It's been common to use this:

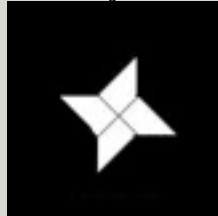

Ninjas had about 5 of these on a mission. it's a shuriken.

What about this: the shuriken is mostly used during stealthy missions.

You may have one of these:

if you ever got a paper cut, you know what a ninja can do. A ninja can use anything as a weapon so if you see a piece of paper and an angry ninja running to kill you, RUN!!!
