

What To Do In Central Park

A photograph of a playground in Central Park. In the center, a large metal swing set stands on a bed of brown mulch. Several people are playing on the swings. To the left, a woman in a black tank top and white shorts is walking on a dirt path. The background is filled with lush green trees under a clear blue sky. The overall scene is bright and sunny.

CENTRAL PARK

- * Central Park is an amazing park. There are many things to do. People love this park for many reasons. There are so many things in Central Park, like the zoo and carousal and vendors and the playground and so much more.
- * There is so much to do in Central Park. First off just take a walk and see the park, there is an always-new thing to see. Go on a horse carriage even though its on the pricier side its an amazing experience. So even though it's kind of expensive it's worth it. Central park has a couple of different playgrounds in side the park. Sometimes it is fun to run around and play.
- * Many people love Central Park. I interviewed some people and everyone likes this "Park" for different reasons. Some people like it for the nature/beauty. Others like it for the zoo or park. Also people enjoy relaxing or walking around with their pet (s)."Athletic" kids like it for the space, it's good for playing sports and in. Also games because of all the space it's good to have a picnic or maybe even getting a tan.
- * Central Park is a big place, it's the 5th biggest park in NYC and it's obviously the biggest park in Manhattan. It is 843 acres. Central Park is from 59th street to 110th street 5th and from Avenue till central park west. The park is open 6 am – 1 am. Central park was technically open in 1857.
- * Central park is an amazing sight to see. In my opinion everyone should go to this park if you are in New York. There are things for everyone in this place.
